Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Is there a hotel in Bahía San Agustín?

No large hotels — the bay is inside a protected National Park. The best place to stay is Overlander Beach Camp Don Taco: beachfront, hot showers, Starlink WiFi, full kitchen, restaurant on-site. Far more memorable than any hotel at a fraction of the price.

Q: Is Bahía San Agustín safe?

Absolutely. A calm fishing village, welcoming locals, well-managed campground. The water is gentle and safe for all ages. Hundreds of international travelers rate safety as a highlight in every review.

Q: Can I snorkel without experience?

Yes — reefs are accessible from the beach in calm, shallow water. Gear available at Don Taco. Guided tours to Riscalillo and Bahía India include full guidance for beginners and children.

Q: Do I need to book Don Taco in advance?

Yes — especially Dec–Mar (whale season), Semana Santa, Christmas/New Year. WhatsApp: +52 958 144 9032 or campingdontaco.com. Walk-ins welcome when space is available.

Q: Is the road passable for large RVs?

Yes. Hwy 200 route (1.7km past HUX Airport → 13km dirt road) handles RVs up to 35ft. Avoid the shorter alternative. Cell signal drops — arrange logistics before leaving Huatulco.

Q: Is there WiFi at the bay?

Cell service is minimal. Don Taco offers Starlink high-speed WiFi — one of the only beachfront camps in the region with reliable internet.
